Lecture, "A Child Survivor of Auschwitz Shares Her Story,"

Bronia Brandman, born in Jaworzno, Poland in 1931, lost her parents, three siblings and extended family in the Holocaust. She is a docent for the Museum of Jewish Heritage in Battery Park and a tireless fighter against Holocaust deniers. She will share the miraculous story of her survival and of the guardian angel who saved her life. Free admission.

Thursday, April 15, 12:30-1:30 pm, Student Union, Rm. 3214

Concert/Lecture, "The Undying Flame: Ballads of the Holocaust"

Jerry Silverman, a musicologist, author, folksinger and guitarist, presents songs in multiple languages that sing of despair, hope, rage, resistance and humor in the face of unspeakable horror. He takes the audience on an eight-decade musical journey beginning with the first concentration camp songs and up to the present. For more information and to hear samples of Jerry's music, visit www.jerrysilverman.org. Free admission.

Kosher refreshments served. Events are open to the public.
